

Unable to read
standard-size 12pt
print for long periods of time, comfortably?

Ask about or get an application from Newberg
Public Library today.

Robert Garfias

(503) 554-7717

libraryoutreach@newbergoregon.gov

State Library of Oregon
Talking Book and Braille Library

Hours

Working Hours:

8 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Public Hours:

9 a.m. - noon; 1 - 4 p.m.

Address

Talking Book & Braille Library

State Library of Oregon

250 Winter St NE

Salem, OR 97301

Contact

Toll-Free: 800-452-0292

Phone: 503-378-5389

Email

talkingbooks.info@slo.oregon.gov

Website

www.oregon.gov/library/print-disabilities/

Talking Book & Braille Library

State Library of Oregon
Talking Book and Braille Library

The Talking Book and Braille Library at the State Library of Oregon is a FREE audiobook and braille library for any Oregonian with a print-disability, which means a person cannot read standard-size 12pt print for long periods of time comfortably.

Applications are available at Newberg Public Library or online.

Applications can be submitted by:

Email  talkingbooks.info@slo.oregon.gov

Mail  250 Winter St NE
Salem, OR 97301

Fax  503-373-7439

“Once I started listening to audiobooks, I rediscovered my love of reading and feel connected again.”

Oregon Talking Book &
Braille Library User